The Reach Gallery Museum Abbotsford Submission Guidelines

The Great Hall

The Reach Gallery Museum Abbotsford accepts submissions for exhibition in The Great Hall from professional visual artists and presents visual art media such as painting, drawing, installation, photography, sculpture, printmaking, video, film and applied arts.

The definition of a professional artist includes some and/or all the following criteria:

A professional artist is someone who

- earns a living through the creation of art;
- has his/her work seen often by the public or whose work is frequently or regularly exhibited;
- received professional training either in an educational institution or from a practitioner within his/her professional art practice;
- teaches in a school of art or applied art;
- received public recognition in the form of awards, honours and/or professional prizes; and
- is recognized as an artist by consensus of opinion among professional artists.

Submission Requirements

- Cover letter
- Résumé, artist's statement, slides and/or CD, list of artist's works and project description
- Slide/CD information should include title, date, dimension and medium for up to 20 works of art
- Self-addressed stamped envelope, if the artist wants the submission to be returned

Original art work will not be accepted for submission.
